Let's Start!

Welcome to Petra!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you know about Petra?
- Where is it? What does it look like?
- What is there?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about geographic features.
- I can talk about cities and places in them.
- I can talk about things, actions and events in the future.

Let's Explore!

Sally visited the rose-colored canyon.

* The canyon in Petra and all of the buildings are pink sandstone.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Peter! How are you!
Peter: Great, Sally! Where are you now?
Sally: I'm in Jordan.
Peter: Will you visit Petra?
Sally: Yes! I'm going tomorrow.
Peter: What do you know about it?
Sally: It's rose-colored! The buildings are carved into the canyon walls!
Peter: How will you get there?
Sally: It's in a long, winding sandstone canyon along the east side of the valley. You ride or walk in between the rock walls. I'll go at 5 a.m. and rent a horse.
Peter: So early!
Sally: It will get hot.
Peter: What will you see?
Sally: I'll visit tombs, an amphitheater, a monastery and a treasury to start.
Peter: It sounds exciting.
Sally: I'm getting up at 3:30, so I have to go to bed now!
Peter: Take lots of pictures!
Sally: I will!

Learning Points

Talking About Geographic Features

When you talk about geographical features, you talk about natural things like bodies of water, plants, animals, and how the land looks.

Geographic features in Petra include things like:

rose-colored sandstone
stone
rock walls winding canyon valley

When you talk about geographical features, you use the Present Simple tense. You use the Present Simple tense because you are talking about something in general or giving facts.

Examples:

- It's in a long, winding sandstone canyon along the east side of a valley.
- You ride or walk in between the rock walls.
