Will Sally visit Istanbul or Constantinople?

* "Constantinople" was the Roman name for Istanbul.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Today you will tour the largest city in Turkey, Istanbul! Many years ago, the Romans lived here. They called it Constantinople. We will see the ruins of their hippodrome and aqueduct. We will also visit Topkapi Palace. Ottoman sultans used it as a residence for 400 years! At one time, 4,000 people lived there. It contained mosques, a hospital, bakeries, and a mint. Next, we will stop at Hagia Sophia. It remained the world's largest cathedral for nearly a thousand years.

Finally, we will go into the Blue Mosque. The builders covered the interior walls with blue tiles. The construction took seven years! The lamps inside were once covered with gold and gems. Unfortunately, these were lost long ago.

I know you will enjoy our tour today. Come this way!
