Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: A Holiday in Greece

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What was the last good story or anecdote that you heard?
- Do you prefer listening to funny or scary stories?

Can Do Statements

- I can use and compare the short u and long o sound.
- I can talk about geographic features.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Let's Explore!

Listen to the radio advertisement for a trip of a lifetime!

* An event "of a lifetime" is one you don't think will happen again.

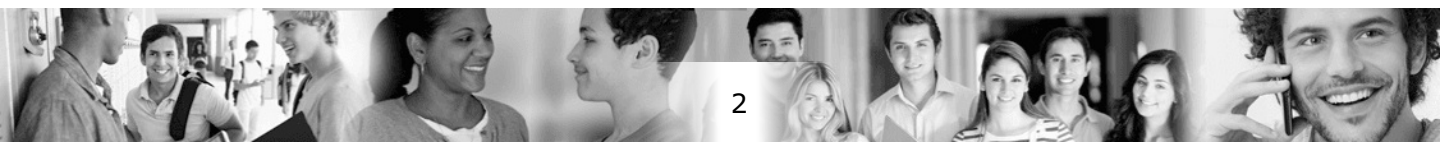

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Go on the trip of a lifetime! You won't want to come home!

Join us on our incredible land and sea, 10-day tour of Greece. The tour begins with an introduction to Greece's spectacular landscape including a drive over the high, steep peaks and canyons of the country's interior. You will be led to the lakes and wetlands of the western border. Island hop on our catamaran and discover all the excitement and relaxation you need during your holidays.

Did you know that Greece possesses an archipelago of about 3,000 islands? Greece is the best destination to lay under the hot sun. You can run along exotic beaches, walk through picturesque mountain trails, see magical sunsets and visit ancient sites from long ago. It is a fun, friendly and fabulous place to make memories.

The Short u and Long o sound

How to pronounce the short u sound:

- The body of the tongue is relaxed and low in the mouth.
- You touch the sides of your tongue to the bottom teeth.
- Your jaw and lips are relaxed.
- This sound is commonly used for the pronunciation of the vowel sound of an unstressed syllable.

How to pronounce the long o sound:

- The long o sound vowel ends in a small w sound.
- The tongue is pushed back between the bottom teeth and you can feel them along the sides of the tongue.
- The sound moves into a w sound by raising the jaw while closing the lips into a small circle.
- The tongue moves upward until the tongue is near the back of the top of the mouth.

Examples:

- Short u sound: won, brother, from, none
- Long o sound: phone, home, tone, roast
