

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you travel in hot places?
- What problems can a person have traveling in hot places?
- How can you prevent these problems?

Can Do Statements

- I can say where places are in a country or city.
- I can talk about general quantities using words like more or less.
- I can compare things and talk about general quantities.

Let's Explore!

Peter thinks being covered in mud is gross!

* "Gross" means disgusting.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: Peter! Vanessa!
- Peter: Hey, Sally. Where did you go after we talked last?
- Sally: I went north to the Dead Sea. Then, I traveled east into the desert.
- Vanessa: Are those places close?
- Sally: Jordan is next to both Egypt and Saudi Arabia.
- Vanessa: How was Petra?
- Sally: It was neat. I rode with some people through the winding rose-colored canyon. None of us spoke a word! It was quieter than you can imagine! It's amazing!
- Peter: What about the Dead Sea? Do any people actually sink?
- Sally: No! The water is saltier and denser there. You just lie on it!
- Peter: I saw the picture of you covered in mud! Gross!
- Sally: A lot of people think the mud makes them healthier!
- Vanessa: Could you send us more pictures?
- Sally: I'll attach some. I have plenty of new ones!

Let's Practice!

Sally talks to Peter about her travels!

Instructions: Read the text. Choose all the words that are quantifiers.

1. Sally: I rode with some people through the winding rose-colored canyon. None of us spoke!
2. Peter: Do any people actually enjoy mud baths?
Sally: A lot of people think the mud makes them healthier!
3. Peter: Send more pictures!
Sally: I'll attach some. I have plenty of new ones.

Let's Practice!

Sally blogs about the Dead Sea!

Instructions: Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

Sally's Blog

The water in the Dead Sea is _____ (salt, saltier, salty) and _____ (denser, dense, densest). _____ (Lots, A lot, Lots of) people think the mud here makes them healthier! I like the Dead Sea _____ (better, bladder, batter) than the Mediterranean Sea! It's so much _____ (quiet, quieter, quietly).

Extension Activity

Read and listen to lyrics of a song.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Go online and look up the lyrics for the song "Midnight at the Oasis".
- Make a list of words you know and words you do not know.
- Look up words you do not know.
- Listen to the song and read along.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I look up lyrics.

☐ ☐

I list words I know and do not know.

☐ ☐

I use a dictionary to find words I do not know.

☐ ☐

I listen to the song online.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- rose (adjective): a light red-purple color
Example: I want to paint my walls a rose color.
- winding (adjective): to twist or turn something
e.g. The vines were winding around the trees.
- sandstone (noun): a soft yellow or red rock often used as a building material e.g. Use sandstone to cut out blocks for the building.
- salty (adjective): to taste or smell like salt
e.g. The Dead Sea is saltier than most lakes.
- dense (adjective): thick; heavy
e.g. The Dead Sea water is dense as well.
- to float (verb): to stay on the surface of the water
e.g. People can float on the surface of the Dead Sea.
- sea (noun): a large area of salt water
e.g. The ship traveled by sea.
- desert (noun): a large area of land covered in sand
Example: They crossed the desert on a camel.

Learning Points

Geographic Features / Building and Structures

When you travel, you often look at the geographic features of an area as well as the buildings and structures.

Geographic Features

rose-colored sandstone
stone
rock walls
winding canyon
valley
sandstone desert
dunes
sea

Structures

building
residence
hospital
mosque
aqueduct
ruins
palace

Examples:

- All of those buildings were cut out of the rock!
- I went from Petra north to the Dead Sea.

Learning Points

Comparatives

You use the comparative form to compare two things.

The comparative form ends in -er: taller.

The word more is used with longer words: more beautiful.

You can use the comparative with a noun: a bigger car, his car was older.

You can use the comparative with than: his house is larger than my house, this dress is more expensive than that one.

Examples:

- A lot of people come to the Dead Sea to get healthier!
- It was quieter than you can imagine!
- I like the Dead Sea better than the Mediterranean Sea!

